

The Canaan Diversified Agriculture program was started in 2013. The program is a combination of animal science, natural resources, and horticulture. FFA is a part of the curriculum and builds members leadership skills. Anyone who is enrolled in diversified agriculture or agriscience is automatically invited to be a member.

The FFA Mission- "FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education."